Greetings ---In a nutshell, if your judge decides that appointment of Settlement Assistance Program counsel makes sense, I will try to find you a lawyer who will help you prepare for your settlement conference. The program depends upon lawyers who donate their time, so I am not able to find a lawyer for everyone who needs help. If I am able to find a lawyer, that lawyer will not be able to help you after the settlement conference, and will not be able to help you with discovery or with briefs.

If you think you would like to try our program you need to ask your judge to appoint Settlement Assistance Program counsel.

Recently I came to know that Settlement Assistance Program for pro se litigants is available.

Can you please send me details of the program.

Thanks for your help in the matter.
